“CONSTRUCTING KNOWLEDGE IN APPLIED
LINGUISTICS THROUGH QUALITATIVE RESEARCH”
JUNE 28-30, 2023

CALL FOR GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH PRESENTATIONS
DEADLINE: MARCH 8, 2023

The University of Guanajuato cordially invites you to the VIII International Qualitative Research Conference from June 28-30, 2023. The theme for the conference is “Constructing Knowledge in Applied Linguistics through Qualitative Research.” Part of this conference is our Graduate Student Research Forum for postgraduate students to present their research and receive feedback.

This conference is open to individuals who carry out or are interested in qualitative research in the area of applied linguistics. During this conference, we hope to address and open the discussion of many issues related to applied linguistics such as: bilingual, heritage and minority education; culture; discourse analysis; educational linguistics; identity; ideology; language maintenance; language teaching; language planning; language and power; research methodology; second language acquisition; sociolinguistics; or socialization, to name a few.

Guest speakers: Donald Freeman (University of Michigan, USA), Laura Gabriela García Landa (UNAM, Mexico), Mario López-Gopar (Universidad Autónoma Benito Juárez de Oaxaca, Mexico), Suhanthie Motha (University of Washington, USA), Angela Valenzuela (University of Texas at Austin, USA)

The call for graduate student presentations is now open until March 8, 2023, and results will be provided by March 15, 2023. The presentation will include 15 minutes for presentation and five minutes for feedback and questions.

Information needed for your proposal is the name of the presenter; affiliation; email address; presentation title (no more than 20 words); abstract (150-200 words) and biodata of the presenter (50 words). Please upload this information to the Google form: <https://forms.gle/LDSx7J6i84vg9DoTA>

Equipment: We will provide a computer and a PowerPoint projector. Please make your own handouts.
